Falconer High School, here's to you,
Book in the land.

With the old Gold and the Blue,
We will proudly take our stand,
In classroom, study, field, or track,
With you dear, as our guide.

No honor ever shall you lack,
We'll win your pride.

Onward Falcons, Onward Falcons
Get in there and fight
Now we never, all together,
Show them who is right
Roll the score up, Roll the score up
Roll it way up high
Eight fellows, Fight! Fight! Fight!
For Falconer High.

APPRECIATION

MISS GRETA SACKETT

Greta Sackett

Upon leaving Falconer High School, Miss Sackett plans to move to Farmingdale, New Jersey, to help train the growth of young plants. In Falconer she trained the growth of young minds.

During the fourteen years our English instructor has been teaching in this village, she has taken part in many of our activities; has been a constant help to us in our school work and in our extra-curricular organizations. She has participated in debate work, dramatics, Sportsmanship Brotherhood, Honor Society, as an adviser to the Senior class and in the coronation ceremony of the Spring Festival.

Before coming to Falconer, Miss Sackett taught in Silver Creek, N. Y., and Asheville, N. C., where she instructed colored children.

Since she has been in Falconer, Miss Sackett has taken an active interest not only in the people around her but also in world affairs as is shown by the amount of traveling she has done. She has been to Colorado, Northern Canada, South America, Louisiana, Europe and around the world.

Miss Sackett attended Fredonia Normal School, Oberlin College and was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University.

Her resignation will leave an empty spot in the hearts of both faculty and students. However, we know that Falconer's loss will be Farmingdale's gain.

DEDICATION

MR. ANTHONY ORTOLANO

MRS. JULIET ANDERSON

For their constant efforts toward making our musical groups outstanding organizations, for helping us all to gain a lasting appreciation for music, for being interested in Falconer High School and its students—for all these things we gratefully dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Juliet Anderson and Mr. Anthony Ortolano.

For the past ten years the vocal training has been under the able supervision of Mrs. Anderson whom we all admire and respect. Under the direction of Mr. Ortolano for the last six years the band and orchestra have been given the finest possible instruction.

FOREWORD

In as much as the Students of Falconer High School are associated in many ways with music, the members of the Corridor Staff chose the music theme. Throughout this book one may observe how this has been carried out in the dedication, design and ornament.

The band, orchestra, choir and glee clubs have participated for several years at the Fredonia Festivals and at State Contests and have frequently won honors. In this day of "swing and hepcats" we think our theme appropriate.

S P O R T S

A handwritten musical score for a string quartet, consisting of four staves. The top staff is for the first violin, the second for the second violin, the third for the viola, and the bottom for the cello. The score includes measures of music with various note heads and stems, and includes a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The score is written on a grid of five horizontal lines and four vertical bar lines, with a bass clef on the bottom staff.

F E A T U R E

DEAR DIARY . . .

SEPTEMBER 6—Missed breakfast this morning, dog-gone it. Arrived "exactly on time"—9:00 a. m., with the rest of the mob. "Heap big wind" in chapel—instructions plus!

SEPTEMBER 8—I can see this is to be a breezy year — more wind in chapel this a. m. — only through instruments this time. We were given lesson No. 1 in the art of being musical.

SEPTEMBER 15—Some people sure stick their necks out and I do mean J. Walker and H. Pugh. Imagine having the courage to take on jobs like that—Assistant Editor-in-Chief and Assistant Business Manager of the Corridor. Our football team is going to the dogs; a boy no longer has to be handsome to get on the team.

SEPTEMBER 18—We were shown the quickest way out this a. m.—our first fire drill.

SEPTEMBER 20—School news was rehashed and published for the first time this year in the Falcon. Eileen makes a habit of airing her "squeekdale" (dog to you) in the library every afternoon.

SEPTEMBER 21—Mr. Fenner is off to a good start with Pascal's law. The poor kids in his Physics class got "all wet."

SEPTEMBER 22—The Allen "machine" won today when Burke was elected President of the Student Council. Opponents were Connie Fonti, Ruth Mattison, and Andy Anderson. The cheerleaders are getting into action with June Waid, Betty Lee Holts, Frances Varmee, Delores Kennedy, and Beatrice Kennedy as our "rah, rah jerkers." These people that don't know where they're at yet—can you imagine Jean E., Johnny, Wayne, Boots, Elly, Shirley, and Jean W. not knowing enough to get out of the gym before it's locked up?

SEPTEMBER 23—We beat those eleven "whahoos" from the Thomas Indian School by 13-0 with Muddy starring for FHS.

SEPTEMBER 25—More elections—Senior class president, "Red" Frazier; vice president, Pill Waith; secretary and treasurer, Ruth Mattison. Hi-Y president, Gugie; vice president, Herman Pugh; secretary, Sam Spataro; treasurer, Bud Coleson; reporter, Tommy Rizzuto; custodian, Bob Benson.

SEPTEMBER 26—Still more elections—Junior class president, Sylvan Adler; sophomore president, Dick Turner; band president, Virginia Hall.

SEPTEMBER 28—The elections continue—Hubby Linquist is president of the Activities club with Hermes Ames as vice president, Beverly Johnson secretary and Betty McCall as treasurer.

SEPTEMBER 29—Ho-hum, pardon me but I just couldn't sleep in assembly this morning because of the latest installment of Miss Sackett's adventure series. Wouldn't it be wonderful if she were to take Mr. Halliburton's place?

SEPTEMBER 30—Our dear gridders won over the Fredonia team by a score of 6-0 in the finest game of "soft mud" alias football that I have ever seen. My mud pies are mere spatters compared with those works of art.

OCTOBER 4—The Hodge Podge (aren't we all?) Bicycle Club had its first meeting in the form of a weiner roast.

OCTOBER 5—Why will insignificant little cats insist on getting in the way of Miss Forgrave and Dr. Wilber? Mary Hilliker is the new president of the Jazz Band. Will it be sweet or swing this year, Mary?

OCTOBER 7—We added another win to our list. Silver Creek was defeated today 6-10.

OCTOBER 9—The middle of the library floor became a flea "scratchery" today when a little black and white dog came in and . . .

OCTOBER 10—A little bird (could it be the one that is always telling my mother?) went on a tour of this establishment today. He entertained the English IV, History C and Secretarial Practice classes. He even braved Professor Hoene's Economics class.

OCTOBER 11—The Hi-Y (kind sirs) began their annual torture for new members. It was quite romantic to see some of the romeos propose to the teachers. But what a let-down, the honored teachers said no. The just "ain't got no" (what are you going to do about it, Miss Sackett?) romance in their souls.

OCTOBER 12—Oh goody, no school!

OCTOBER 13—Assembly this a. m. was a continuation of last Wednesday's comedy. The Hi-Y put on the program plus a wee bit of crazy costuming. Dick Lawson (Mae West to you) won the peanut race by a nose length.

OCTOBER 14—We earned a round goose egg to put beside that of Salamanca this afternoon. That's right, the game ended in a scoreless tie.

OCTOBER 16—Hallowe'en is coming. Just ask anyone in the Sportsmanship Brotherhood except the president who wouldn't know anyway. They began making plans for their Hallowe'en dance today.

OCTOBER 17—At long last—comes the Lakewood game. The F Club made plans for a big bon fire next Friday night.

OCTOBER 20—The orchestra orchestrated, the cheer leaders cheered and the students relaxed in assembly. Nice beginning for a hectic day. Tonight came the bon fire. If our winning depended on the fire, we would certainly have it "in the bag." Orchids to you students who went and phooey to those who went to Lakewood and made bets with those rooters.

OCTOBER 21—And it was "in the bag." We trounced Lakewood to the tune of 20-2. The weather was a wee bit on the wet side but that didn't hold our boys down. Nyah, nyah, nyah—you didn't collect your bet anyhow.

OCTOBER 23—The Hi-Y is coming up in the world. The boys went to Fredonia for a meeting of the Chautauqua County Hi-Y. From all reports, the speakers were interesting.

OCTOBER 25—The Dramatic Club was entertained by a skit put on by some of its more talented (?) members. Ask Paul Bennett how the cigars tasted.

OCTOBER 26—Hooray! Once more there was no school, thanks this time to the teachers' meeting in Fredonia.

OCTOBER 28—The Sportsmanship Brotherhood hold their annual Hallowe'en festival. Swell support from the students as proved by the huge crowd that attended. The Sophomore class won the prize for the best booth.

OCTOBER 31—Torture over and the patients were formally admitted to the Hi-Y.

OCTOBER 32—Do you remember the Frazier Hunt club, dear diary? Well, listen. They held an election of officers tonight and Don Buck is the new president; Roberta Johnson, the vice president; and Maggie Giarusso is the secretary and treasurer. More power to them.

OCTOBER 33—The Jazz Band held a wee jam and jive session for the Activities Club. Oh to be a jitterbug!

CCTOB (whoops I've just discovered this is November. Is my face red!)

NOVEMBER 4—Another one of those 0-0 games, this time it was Westfield. Can't we ever win a game.

NOVEMBER 6—A few more patients were added to that most excellent of societies, the Hi-Y.

NOVEMBER 7—The members of the Corridor staff voted on their choice of candidates for dedication of this year's annual. Then came the Frazier Hunt club meeting and Senior play rehearsal for those (un?)lucky enough to be in it.

NOVEMBER 8—The Junior class held the first skating party. It turned out rather successfully too, I hear.

NOVEMBER 10—Mr. Brown, a World War veteran, gave us some vivid descriptions of the horrors of war. A nice, gruesome beginning for the day. The program was in charge of room 3.

NOVEMBER 11—Three times and out! This time it was Gowanda and the usual 0-0 tie.

NOVEMBER 13—Bravo Hi-Y! They really studied out methods of bettering meetings.

NOVEMBER 16—The Corridor staff slaved through a banquet for football men from various schools in the county. Banners were presented to Falconer and Silver Creek for their achievements in the realm of football.

NOVEMBER 17—This morning in assembly an amendment to the constitution was put to vote. The amendment proposed the plan of putting the school police in charge of the student council. The amendment was passed. Does this august body need to be taken in hand?

NOVEMBER 20—The Hi-Y entertained the Mi-Y at which time Miss Dunshee let some pearls of wisdom drop from her lips on the subject of etiquette.

NOVEMBER 22—Ah—vacation and the grand old custom of single sessions. The Senior class sponsored a skating party at Skateland tonight. Incidentally, did anyone notice just how many footsore students clambered aboard the Gerry bus besides the rightful riders?

Top Row—Girls Intramurals; M. Anderson, C. MacDonald; W. Mee, Mr. White; Miss Sackett Taking Attendance in R. 23. Fourth Row—Girls Intramurals; A. Te se Moment; V. Burns, R. Johnson; A. Anderson, W. Hall; R. Johnson, D. Anderson. Third Row—Vegetable Parade; M. Moyer; H. Ream; Study in Shop; D. Jordan, P. "Tar an" Bennett. Second Row—Noon hour humor in R-23; Chemistry Lab; R. Blachard; Mr. Nessina; D. Jordan, Mrs. Bennett. Bottom Row—C. Gugino, M. Moyer, B. Williams, J. Walker; Mr. Thiel; T. Burns, E. Bedient; "Cam" and J. Waid; F. Jenkins; C. Gilbert; J. Scott, W. Finch.

NOVEMBER 28—How many took their annual pre-winter bath at the Y tonight when they played host to our Hi-Y?

NOVEMBER 30—Thanks to that dear man in the White House the Corridor staff had a chance to serve a turkey dinner tonight. Was it successful? Well, I guess. The popular rumor is that over 200 attended. We played Randolph at Randolph and won 36-14. Could it be the food?

DECEMBER 4—Mr. Duncan had a session with the Hi-Y during which they talked about war. Could it be that they plan to exterminate our termites?

DECEMBER 8—Finally all the talk of entrances, costumes, lines and related chatter was made public. That's right. The Senior class presented Noel Coward's "I'll Leave It to You." The cast included Lillian Waith, Ethel Ecklund, Virginia Hall, Pauline Holm, Theo Aiken, Concetta Fonti, Arnold Everett, Joe Bloomquist, Paul Bennett, Eugene Fitzpatrick. Really it smelled quite sweet—not like rehearsals, eh Mrs. Carlson?

DECEMBER 9—We lost to Gowanda 16-26.

DECEMBER 12—Our cagers made up for last Saturday by beating Lakewood 30-16. The German, no I didn't say Adolph, Band furnished the music.

DECEMBER 15—Boo hoo! Gr-r-r fight and stuff. Salamanca defeated our squad 26-16.

DECEMBER 16—Thanks to that organization known as the Activities club our school is ready for Sandy Claws. The corridors are quite gay with red and green.

JANUARY 2—Back to the old grind. Now looms a black, black shadow—regents.

JANUARY 8—The Hi-Y is still going strong. Tonight they saw a movie on that most popular of strong drinks—Coca-Cola.

JANUARY 5—The stage turned into an amateur forest this morning for the Hunting & Fishing club's program. The scene was complete even to a tent and stuffed animals and I must say they seemed right at home (the boys I mean). Dunkirk beat us 33-17 tonight.

JANUARY 9—Guess what! Miss Dunshee is going to be married. What will FHS do without her?

JANUARY 11—The donkey basketball game tonight was a wow. The B & G News team played our faculty athletes. Of course we won. Those animals must have been hard judging by the padding some of the players used. High spot was Mr. Panzarella's Tarzan act—hanging from the basket rim by one hand.

JANUARY 22—Groan, groan. Regents!! Oh where has my memory fled, oh where? Help! I think I've got knocking of the knees, chilling of the feet, spinning of the head and so forth.

JANUARY 25—Can you imagine that? I sailed through all three regents with nifty marks. Now I really feel weak. The concert tonight aroused favorable comment in the audience. In spite of the bitter cold, the masses came to see and hear this wonderful display of talent found only in FHS.

JANUARY 29—Some of our Hi-Y members went to the roaring metropolis of Frewsburg for a joint meeting with Frewsburg, Fredonia, and Bemus Point. Kelderhouse of Bemus Point and Werty of Fredonia entertained the group.

JANUARY 31—The Camera club's skating party was profitable for Josephine Ferrara, Julian Mills, Bob Blanchard, and Billy Shaver who came home burdened with an electric toaster, an electric clock, an onion, and a blanket respectively.

FEBRUARY 2—The Honor Society's spelling bee was finally completed. Ethel Ecklund came in first with Teresa Raimondo a close second. Isn't it dreadful what some of these seniors can do with words? One would think that Pauline would know that "schocking" does not spell "shocking." And the way Mr. Andy Anderson stumbled (and fell) over some of the words was funny. Don't look now but Valentine's day is coming and so is the Sportsmanship Brotherhood's second annual hop. Hooray! We beat the Maroon and White of Dunkirk 30-26.

FEBRUARY 5—And now Mrs. Fox is leaving. This is getting to be a habit. Who will be next to go?

FEBRUARY 22—"God Winks" was presented by that seasoned troupe of talented players found only in the FHS Dramatic Club. The star-studded cast of characters included such famous personages as Betty Mae Balder, Virginia Wiltsie, Herman and Freddie Pugh. (They were good enough to be asked to give the same play at a local church. Ah sweet success!)

FEBRUARY 23—I wonder what Georgie Washington would say if he were with us today and could see the tributes paid to him. Miss Fox and her cohorts did their best to make that old gentleman memorable to us this morning in assembly.

FEBRUARY 29—Our dear old Alma Mater won 6 and lost 9 games this year the statisticians of this institution report. I have heard that Strick scored the first and last points of the year.

MARCH 1—Imagine the Senior class with a motto like "Together we stick, divided we're stuck." If the teachers only know how true this bit of wisdom is.

MARCH 8—The feminine contingent of the language department gave a dinner party for Mrs. Fox tonight. The program was really clever, a demonstration of Miss Herrick's unsuspected flair for the humorous.

MARCH 11—Appendicitis and pneumonia are excusable in high school students, but measles and chicken pox? Never. It's disgraceful.

MARCH 12—Those two inseparables, Grout and Owens, came out on top in the local Dairy-men's League contest. They must be good because those topics were no cinch. Poor Miss Sackett has one headache after another with all these essays to correct.

MARCH 13—Oh diary, the most gruesome thing happened today. Strick got his left thumb cut off as far as the knuckle. Then some strong-stomached admirer made an exhibit of this choice portion of Mr. Strickland's anatomy. Ugh! Come quick with that cold air . . . I feel slightly green.

MARCH 18—The Junior class had their theater party tonight. The movie was swell but the weather was fierce. A-choo! Pardon me. I hope that "code in my nose" isn't returning.

MARCH 18-APRIL 1—Ah heavenly days. Vacation! If it weren't for that "code" that I got in spite of my mother I'd have had fun. As it is I'm glad to be back in school.

APRIL 5—Mr. George Elias talked directly to Mr. Ortolano and the rest of us listened in. Those gestures and big dark eyes are captivating. In his country everyone wants to be a shepherd. I wonder if that's where they practice rolling their eyes.

APRIL 16—Choir day at Fredonia Normal and a brief absence from the dreaded History C.

APRIL 17—Orchestra day. Some of the kids must have been born under a lucky star—they get two days off.

APRIL 19—Band day and some fortunates are having their third day off.

APRIL 25—Chautauqua is playing host to the Legion Oratorical contest. This is swell practice for the spellbinders of tomorrow but no place for weak-kneed hopefules like Yours Truly.

APRIL 26—We are having the spelling contest here tonight. I sure hope it goes better than the one the Honor Society had last winter. And please save us from A. Anderson's pronouncing the words.

MAY 3—"The Eagle Screams" and I bet that he will when the faculty gets through with it. Yes, the faculty is presenting a play and the proceeds are to go to that big money eater—the Corridor. Good luck—we need it (the money).

MAY 17—It is early for circuses yet so the Hi-Y, in lieu of the real thing, is planning a variety show. I wonder who the real salesman will be that wanders around yelling "Peanuts, popcorn, candy, and stuff!"

MAY 25—I'm just looking ahead now, dear diary, but I can see amazingly well. On this day comes the May festival and the end of a great many headaches, namely, the Corridor staff's misery (they hope). The King _____ and Queen _____ have to prove their worth by leading the light fantastic enthusiasts through their paces. I hope it won't rain like last year.

MAY 30—Thanks to those old gents who so gallantly (or not) died in the Civil War we have a day of vacation. Hats off, dead men.

JUNE 7—(Awards days) I'm glad that this day takes most of the morning. If luck is with us we may escape History C for a day. I bet the hock shops will do a good business with all these pins and awards being passed out.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET—Now it will be the Seniors' turn to get "stuffed to the gills" and criticise as much as possible.

JUNE 17—I want a stretcher handy when this day comes because with the first sleepy twitter of the birds at dawn comes closer the dreaded 9:00 a. m. and history C regents. Now we will find out who those two lone Seniors are whom Miss Dunshee has been prophesying will survive the ordeal and graduate.

JUNE 23—The Baccalaureate Service and the beginning of the end. Oh happy day!

JUNE 24—Class Night and a wee bit of relaxatxion before tomorrow night and the fall of the ax.

JUNE 25—Really and truly good-bye this night to our Alma Mater FHS by two people at least if Miss Dunshee's prophesy be true.

CLASS HISTORY

At last it was September 1937 and seventy-five plus tanned Freshmen trooped into FHS. Evidently last year's room full of lively Freshmen was too much for Mr. Fenner—this year's class was divided up to fit several rooms and the Seniors were given 23. Andy Anderson, star pupil from the South Side School, was elected president of the group. Being rather timid, we were not too socially inclined and the only highlight of our season was a Hallowe'en party.

Came 1938 and we were back as lanky Sophies under the guidance of Joe Bloomquist. We had representatives in the Sportsmanship Brotherhood for the first time—Clarice MacDonald, Pauline Holm, Dick Sandeen, and Don Anderson. Our biggest money-making function was selling hot dogs at a football game. Did we make money? I think we cleared about 58c.

1939—and then we were Juniors. Laurie Swanson led us through the year and tried to collect the dues. Virginia Hall, in the roll of treasurer, managed the money as it came in. After innumerable candy and ice cream sales, skating parties, and who-knows-what it was June and time for the banquet—the best ever held in FHS. Mr. Panzarella and his artistic friends carried out in the decorations the most important event in years, namely, the World's Fair.

Finally September 1939 rolled around and we fell heir to the remains of room 23 and Miss Sackett. We made an auspicious beginning electing Wayne Frazier president; Pill Waith, vice president; and Ruth Mattison, secretary and treasurer. One new feature this year was including the price of a yearbook for every Senior in the class budget. In December came that great epic in FHS dramatic history—Noel Coward's "I'll Leave It to You." The play was a big success due to the efforts of Mrs. Carlson and Mr. Fenner and gave our treasury a taste of growin' pains.

In January came that age-old custom of regents. Evidently Ted Lawson had an advance preview of what they would be like and, as a warning to us, left school to become a grocery magnate.

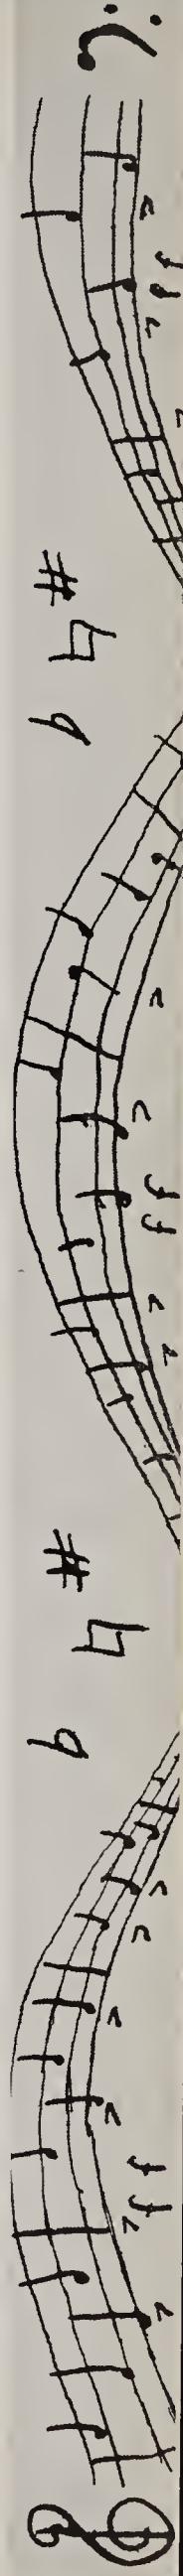

Perhaps you have, at sometime this year, been a bit rattled by someone's coming along, shooting off some flashlight powder and then calmly going on his way. Burke Allen, our camera fiend, is the guilty one and it is to him we owe most of the candid shots in this annual.

Graduation photographs do not seem important to you now; but—in years to come, you will treasure them more and more. In fact, many former graduates who didn't have theirs taken, have repeatedly stated that they wished they had a Graduation Photograph of themselves.

Graduation time is the ONLY time these photographs can be taken, so that there will be no regrets, phone 56-133 for an appointment or stop in and see our samples.

Falconer High School, here's to you,
Best in the land.

"Neath the old Gold and the Blue,
We will proudly take our stand,
In classroom, study, field, or track,
With you, dear, as our guide.

No honor ever shall you lack,
We'll win your pride.

Onward Falconer, Onward Falconer
Get in there and fight
Now or never, all together,
Show them who is right
Roll the score up, Roll the score up
Roll it way up high
Fight fellows, Fight ! Fight ! Fight !
For Falconer High.
